

Drill Helper

2 Openings – Greenville, NC Area and Wilmington, NC

Established engineering/geology firm is seeking an entry level Drill Helper for an immediate position in the Greenville, NC area and Wilmington, NC. This position involves physical labor working directly with a Williamston, NC or a Wilmington, NC based drill crew performing environmental and geotechnical exploratory drilling mainly in the coastal plain of North Carolina.

Work will include helping driller with boring and monitoring well installation and collecting soil and groundwater samples for laboratory analysis.

Ideal candidate would want to pursue career in the drilling industry.

Must be self motivated, hard working, works well in a team environment, able to lift and carry at least 50 lbs. and work in all weather conditions. Overnight travel is routinely required. Pre-employment, random drug testing and criminal background check required. Benefits include opportunities for growth and advancement, paid time off, health insurance, dental and 401K. CATLIN is an equal opportunity employer.

Position requires clean NC driving record, NC CDL Class A or ability to obtain, obtain military base clearance.

Email resume to employment@catlinusa.com

You may fill out an application in person at 220 Old Dairy Road, Wilmington, NC 28405.